CIRCLE

by Harry Chapin

All my life's a circle,
Sunrise and sundown.
The moon rolls through the nighttime,
'Til the daybreak comes around.

All my life's a circle,
But I can't tell you why.
Season's spinnin' round again,
The years keep rollin' by.

It seems that I've been here before,
I can't remember when.
And I've got this funny feelin'
that we'll all be together again.

There's no straight lines make up my life,
And all my roads have bends.
There's no clear cut beginning,
And so far no good ends.

The person to whom we dedicate this book is indescribable. It is not enough to say that in a classroom she's independent, demanding, dynamic, and at times absolutely infuriating; but, she's a unique and thoughtful friend who's concerned for her students twenty-four hours a day.

Like Don Quixote, she brandishes her red pen against grammatical errors and misspellings. The erudite peregrinations through her fecund lexicon boggle the intellect of the plebians captive in her despotic domain. It never ceases to amaze that such overpowering sounds emanate from so diminutive a source.

Her style of instruction is original. She motivates students to achieve their utmost capability and potential. "Why NOT the best" is her operative lesson plan.

For her love, her care, her understanding, and her belief in us, the class of 1979 proudly dedicates its yearbook to:

P.E. STAFF

Lawana Noftz
Principal

Between the sunrise and sunset of your years at Charlotte Junior-Senior High School, each of you has had the opportunity to learn the basic skills, to accumulate knowledge, develop talents, to participate in many social and sports activities, and to be of service to the school in numerous ways.

As you leave this school, you face the sunrise of another period in your lives. Each of you has a part to play. How well you play your part depends on how well you apply what you have already learned.

My hope for each of you is that you will find work which is satisfying and rewarding, friends who understand you, and success in reaching your goals.

Lawana Noftz

Attitudes and feelings about people and things quite frequently change when people allow themselves to think positively about their environment and the social factors which have impact on our daily lives.

Since coming to Charlotte, I have been impressed with the dedication and commitment of our teaching faculty and the overall enthusiasm on the part of our students in improving their minds and preparing for the future.

I am encouraged and pleased with what I see, and I can say with pride that I feel good about young people.

Last, but not least, to all the coaches who have worked hard with our athletes throughout the year.

WITAN EDITORS – Stephanie Fowler, Wayne Howard, Robert DeHond, Mary Frauenhofer.

The word "Witan" originally meant elders or wise counselors, or a policy forming group. In 1920, Witan was chosen from the suggestions of sixty students as the name for the literary magazine that was published six times a year. The yearbook at that time was published separately and had a different name each year, such as The Aurora and The Elite.

In 1924 the magazine and yearbook merged and published four editions a year, the January and June issues for seniors graduating in those months. In 1934 the two classes combined and published a joint book.

Since the first paperback publication, the Witan has grown into an award-winning yearbook that is cherished by Charlotte students.

HOMECOMING

The inclement weather and cancellation of the parade didn't dampen the spirit of Homecoming 1978. Our football team, the Lakesiders, were victorious over Marcus Whitman, 12-0. The Homecoming dance featured the band, Quake. The evening came to a climax as Kathy Acierno was crowned the Homecoming Queen.

Well, it's that time of year again to put down all your books. Now, that you are seniors, you will go out into the world. It may sound frightening, but it's not. As young men and women, you should think back and remember the good times that you've had in the past and look forward to the future.

Some of you will become doctors, lawyers, or truck drivers. Be proud of whatever you decide to do. Hold your head up high, and stand up for yourself. Some of you will cry, while others will laugh. Meet life head-on, and don't let it get you down.

When you're feeling down, call or write to a friend. A true friend will always be there to help you.

I could go on, but the only other thing I would like to say is that life is what you make of it!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The 1979 Witan Staff wishes to thank all those who helped with this yearbook.

Mr. Crellin for the use of his darkroom, photographic supplies, and paper.
Mr. Messinger from the Delmar Company for his help and patience.
Mrs. Noftz and Mr. Williams for their much appreciated cooperation.
Ms. Perry for putting up with the craziness of the Witan Staff.
Mr. Polito for assisting us with our financial matters.
Mrs. Stubbs for her superb typing job on our copy sheets.
All our patrons and sponsors for without you we wouldn't have been able to publish this yearbook.
The faculty and staff for letting us out of classes in times of need (especially Mr. Hamed).
The main office for putting up with us.
To Varden Studios, especially Chris, for super pictures.

A special thank you to Robert from Martha and Joan for his fantastic artwork and creativity in designing the layout. Without his assistance and devotion, Witan 1979 would not have been possible.

HIGH SCHOOL

from Song of the Open Road

Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose.

Henceforth I ask not good-fortune, I myself am good-fortune,
Henceforth I whimper no more, postpone no more, need
nothing,
Done with indoor complaints, libraries, querulous
criticisms,
Strong and content I travel the open road.

Walt Whitman

I'm not gonna forget
good times in Mr. Bolands class. I'm really glad that I got to know you, man, it's really been great. Be sure & take it light in the future.
